

Organizational Structure

National Board

Who is on the Board?

As Na'amat Canada is a member-driven organization, the Board is comprised of volunteers, representing the membership from across the country. Na'amat Canada staff are also included on the Board, but they are ex-officio and thus have no voting privileges.

Who attends Board meetings:

Members

- National President
- Immediate Past President
- Past National Presidents
- National Vice President
- National Financial Secretary
- Membership Engagement & Leadership Development (MELD) Committee Chair
- Social Advocacy & Fundraising Committee Chair
- Education Committee Chair
- Appointed Members at Large
- Council Presidents and Representatives from Non-Council Cities

Non-Voting Staff and Volunteer Advisors

- Executive Vice President
- Organizational Development Advisor
- Volunteer Advisors

Out of these Board Members, the following group makes up the Na'amat Canada Executive:

National Executive:

Members

- National President
- National Immediate Past President
- National Vice President *
- National Financial Secretary
- Two Additional Members serving as National Membership Engagement & Leadership Development, Education or Social Advocacy & Fundraising Committee Chairs

* National Vice President chairs one of the Committees